

Kitchen Tours

Our primary focus at Summervgrove Estate is exclusive use weddings where most days we're not open to the public and are unable to offer menu tastings. However we understand food can be a big part of your special day and are happy to provide a guided tour with our head chef Matt (by appointment only) through our state of the art kitchens. Matt will be happy to explain his process of operation and answer any food related questions.

